11. Registration time will be given out closer to the event.
12. Programs will be available at check in on Friday. The order of performances for each category as well as the location for each category will be listed. These will not be available ahead of time to individuals. Competition times will not be given out to by phone or any other means prior to the event. Please make sure your students and their parents are aware of this.
13. All visual art and graphic art, writing categories, videos and short films, photography and t-shirt design are evaluated prior to the festival and must be received by February 1, 2019. Items not received by this date will not be evaluated and will be returned at the festival. All other items will be on display throughout the festival.
14. At the network festival we do our best to duplicate equipment that will be provided at the nation festival, however this is not always possible. Please note the following:

A drum set will be provided for the following categories:
Percussion Solo, Traditional
Christian Band
Worship Team
Instrumental Ensemble

A drum set will be provided for Choir only if requested 2 weeks prior to the festival.

A second drum set will be provided for percussion group, traditional only if requested 2 weeks prior to the festival.

If your church is able to provide a drum set for the event please contact the office.

A keyboard will be provided for the following categories:

Instrumental Ensemble, Contemporary

Christian Band

Worship Team

Rap

Songwriting

Vocal Solo and Ensemble

If your church is able to provide a keyboard, stand and pedal for the event please contact the office.

15. Students needing to use the background music must use an MP3 device. CD's are not accepted.
16. Please note that it is mandatory for each participant to read the National Fine Arts Festival Rule book. There are significant changes. When they sign their application they are stating that they have read the rules. It is critical that they are aware of the rules for each individual category that they are entering in.
